INSPIRING, ENTERTAINING AND TRANSFORMING LIVES

It is an exciting time for Portsmouth Guildhall and The Guildhall Trust as we enter 2024!

Work on the transformation of the Basement has been in full swing throughout the Autumn and we thank you for your understanding as we continue to develop The BASE and what will be one of the most unique and innovative creative spaces for young people in the country. You can follow the progress and find out more about the exciting facility we are creating at www.thebaseguildhall.com

Our new and greatly expanded Classical Series, which was launched in the Autumn, also continues into the new year and we look forward to enjoying a rich variety of works and welcoming London Sinfonietta, International Film Orchestra and London Festival Opera to Portsmouth for the first time.

Our Classical Series is presented alongside a packed programme of comedy, dance, drama, family entertainment and music to cater for all tastes at the South's leading and busiest Concert Hall!

In recognition of our work, we were delighted to have recently been nominated for a string of awards including Venue of the Year at the LIVE awards, Best Business Event Venue in the Beautiful South awards, and Takedown Festival which we produce in partnership with Divergent Festivals, was nominated for three UK Festival awards in its first year!

The impact of The Guildhall Trust continues to spread beyond Portsmouth. Our Dance Live! event for schools and colleges will this year engage over 6,500 young people from across Portsmouth, Guildford, High Wycombe, Poole and Blackpool and we are delighted to announce that from 1st February, The Guildhall Trust has been appointed as the new operator of The White Rock in Hastings! This is a significant development for the Trust, and we look forward to using our experience to develop a multi-faceted cultural asset for Hastings, while diversifying our operation which will bring additional revenue and sustainability to the Trust, benefitting all the communities we serve.

MY COUNTRY

Smetana

Má Vlast is considered a paragon of Czech nationalism – celebrating its culture and history, the countryside, and its people. Though usually performed as independent pieces, only as a six-work cycle is Smetana's grand conception fully realised - Vyšehrad, Vltava, Šárka, Bohemia, Tábor and Blaník.

7.30PM, THU 25 JAN 2024

LONDON TOWN

Brahms, Vaughan Williams

Actual London sounds fleetingly emerge from an exquisitely woven musical tapestry – the chimes of Big Ben, the cry of a lavender-seller. Central to the symphony's success is the wonderful limpid scoring, which Vaughan Williams felt in later life that he had never bettered. All of Brahms' four instrumental concertos were milestones in his compositional development. The Second Piano Concerto was written shortly after the Second Symphony and is itself symphonic in scale and form, comprising four movements.

7:30PM, THU 22 FEB 2024

COUNTERPOINT COUNTERPARTS

Mozart, Bruckner

Mozart's piano concerto begins with a gentle melody, setting the stage for a unique blend of moods from quiet serenity to flashes of aural radiance. The spirited finale perhaps reminds us that this was the product of one of the most exhilarating periods in his tragically brief life. In his Fifth Symphony, Bruckner built on the Austro-German symphonic tradition of Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven, taking it to a monumental scale infused with rich, progressive harmonies and a stunning mastery of counterpoint.

The Guildhall Trust is committed to reducing the impact that its operations and activities have on the environment:

We have retained our 'A' rating for our building's energy performance operational score!

We only fit LED lighting throughout the venue

We have introduced recycling throughout the venue

We have changed all of our plastic glasses to Oxo-Biodegradable Flexy-Glass – a more eco-friendly option

We work with transport providers to encourage the use of public transport. If you travel to the Guildhall from across South Hampshire, use the Breeze Super-App to plan and book your journey!

We fund 50 trees to be planted through our partner, Ecologi, for every Conferencing event held in our Main Auditorium
