INSPIRING, ENTERTAINING & TRANSFORMING LIVES

As we move into 2025, we look forward to what promises to be another busy and exciting year for Portsmouth Guildhall and the charity that operates it, The Guildhall Trust!

A rich and varied programme across the main auditorium, The Box and The Lens Studio lies ahead with many highlights including Ocean Colour Scene, Greg Davies, David Gray, Crystal Tides, Jack and Michael Whitehall Live, Craig Charles' Funk & Soul House Party, Riverdance and much, much more!

The Classical Series continues with an exceptional programme of works that mixes classical and contemporary with a heavy dose of innovation. We are also delighted to announce that in August, in partnership with Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra, we will be hosting two Symphonic Spectacular concerts, John Williams: The Master and ABBA, outdoor in Guildhall Square.

We were delighted to recently induct both Graham Gouldman of 10cc and Midge Ure to the Guildhall Wall of Fame, testaments which are available to view at all Guildhall events, along with the Portsmouth Music Experience exhibition which reflects on Portsmouth's music scene and the history of the Guildhall.

A new Charcuterie Board dining package is now available for pre-show and following a sold-out Christmas Party season, we are excited to launch a new theme for our 2025 parties.

This spring, we welcome the return of our own events that are produced and managed by The Guildhall Trust, Portsmouth Comic Con and Takedown Festival, with both promising an exciting line-up of entertainment for their respective audiences!

Following the total transformation of the Guildhall's basement, we are delighted to see the success of the new creative space for young people, The BASE, and due to demand are now opening up further collaborative working space sessions and opportunities for organisations and established creatives to use the space.

For more information about The Guildhall Trust and our reach into communities beyond Portsmouth, please take a look at www.guildhalltrust.org.uk

We look forward to welcoming you soon!
