FAQs

You will provide all table linens, cutlery, crockery and glassware. All staffing for catering to be supplied by the external catering company.

The use of the kitchen is included in your package for the serving of food only. No raw preparation is permitted. Your catering team will be required to provide documentation (confirmed in the contract) along with a signed caterer contract (supplied by the venue) ahead of the big day.

For events where alcohol is present there will be a corkage charge of £1,000.

Please note that use of our bars and pumps are not permitted when bringing your own alcohol into the venue.

Three security operatives are included in the package. This number is a minimum requirement and subject to change based on the final numbers confirmed for your wedding.

Additional security charges will apply for numbers over 500 or when alcohol is present. Additional security is charged at £200 per operative.

We require £1,000 deposit to confirm your booking along with a signed booking agreement.

Full payment will be required at least 1 month before the event or as agreed at time of booking.

A further refundable bond of £1,000 is required to ensure that our venue is cleaned after the event.
